

King James – a Royal Progress

Renaissance Music for a Summer Afternoon

Sunday 8 July, 2.30 pm

Come to hear some of the songs and music the villagers of Great Brickhill might have heard when James I was king. The Cryers, an early music group based in Woburn Sands, accompanied by local musicians, will entertain you with songs and with dances of the period. There'll even be an opportunity to join in a dance, if you wish.

St Mary the Virgin Church,
Great Brickhill, MK17 9AG

Cream teas after the concert

Free admission

Retiring collection for St Marys
